BRITISH TROOPS AVENGE DEATHS OF SERGEANTS

Five Jews Slain, 18 Hurt
By Gunfire in Tel Aviv;
More Violence Expected

JERUSALEM, July 31 (AP)—The hanging of two British sergeants and the bloody mutilation of their bodies by a Zionist underground gang brought a bloody response from enraged British troops tonight as five Jews were killed and at least 18 wounded by gunfire from armored cars in the streets of Tel Aviv.

The hanged and bloody bodies of the two 20-year-old sergeants, Clifford Martin and Mervyn Paice, who were seized as hostages by Irgun Zvai Leumi nearly three weeks ago, were found today swinging at the end of nooses in an easel-shaped grove south of Natanya.

A bloody trap exploded and scattered bits of flesh for 100 yards when the first body was cut down.

Following the finding of the bodies, the terror-racked Holy Land warred in fear that new acts of reprisal and counter-reprisal would far exceed the violence of the past several weeks.

Palestinians did not have long to wait and tonight, a reliable source said, Jews and British soldiers clashed in the streets of the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv and indiscriminate shooting began from armored cars.

The taking of two buses by gunfire caused most of the casualties, the source said. Three persons were killed in one bus and one in another, while a fifth person died in a hospital of bullet wounds. At one time, eight armored cars opened up with their guns, the informant reported.

The dead were two women, two men and a young boy. Damage to shops and other property was placed at $100,000. Late tonight all British troops and British police patrols were withdrawn from Tel Aviv and the tension eased.

In Jerusalem streets sounded a general alarm at 11:50 p. m. when gunfire was heard near the central police station. The all-clear signal was given a few minutes later. There were no casualties.

A Jewish source said that Haganah, moderate Jewish underground group, was fearful of the result of the Tel Aviv incident — bloodiest single episode in the past weeks' history.

Ford Firm Offers Concession to UAW To Stave Off Strike

DETROIT, July 31 (AP)—Facing a strike threat, the Ford Motor company volunteered tonight to yield certain rights under the Taft-Hartley labor law.

"But in return for a promise to ignore its privilege of suing a union for 'illegal strike' damages, Ford sought to bring its 101,000 CIO workers to a 'good faith' pact against such strikes.

The proposal, which set forth a series of conditions, was made known by Henry Ford II, company president, after an extraordinary conference in New York City between himself and CIO President Philip Murray.

The CIO United Auto Workers are to decide Saturday whether to approve a strike — to be called probably for next week — against Ford.

A major objective of the union is to obtain contractual protection against suits under the new labor law.

Ford bluntly refused this conceding its effect would be to "nullify" the law and asserting that the company "cannot be party to placing unions above the law."

At the same time Ford charged that negotiations with the UAW-CIO here had become a "marionette show" and he asked Murray's personal intervention.

Ford charged that "hands far distant from the bargaining table" were pulling the strings. He did not elaborate.

There was no immediate comment from the union on Ford's offer.

Ford, in a statement, laid down the following proposal:

"We have, to be specific, proposed that the company will agree not to institute suit against the union for damages arising out of illegal strikes under the following 'good faith' conditions:

"1. If the union has not inspired or authorized such an illegal strike, and

"2. If the union will agree promptly to denounce publicly such an illegal strike, and

"3. If the union and its responsible officers and agents will agree to use prompt and honest effort to prevent or end any such illegal strike, and

"4. If the impartial umpire, who, by agreement with the union, decides other points of difference arising out of our contract and who

GRADE SCHOOL MERGER KILLED BY 3 TO 2 VOTE

Consolidation of Six Grades
At Collegeville, Trappe
Creates Spirited Debate

Seventy residents of Trappe and Collegeville joined a three-hour, sharply-worded debate last night that ended with Trappe school board members killing a proposal to consolidate Trappe's first six grades with Collegeville schools.

The open meeting, conducted by the Collegeville-Trappe consolidated school board, climaxed a year of discussion that included pro-consolidation petitioning by the influential Community club of the area.

When the Trappe board members rejected the proposal, the issue was dropped and the Collegeville board members were not polled.

Supporters of the defeated move came armed with a four-page report of a committee, headed by Martin W. Witmer, Ursinus College professor, that unanimously favored consolidation.

After more than two hours of sharp exchanges on taxes, school buses, old buildings, and property values, the Trappe board rejected merger by a 3-2 vote.

This decision means that all of the first six grades will study next year in Trappe buildings. These grades will have two teachers in two rooms. During the past year, Grades four, five and six rode buses to Collegeville while the first three grades studied at Trappe.

Opponents of consolidation charged that sending 6-year-old children on school buses would be dangerous. Proponents replied that the same parents who worry about school buses, send their young children much greater distances on public buses for Saturday movies.

"Horse-and-buggy thinking" was the answer of one Trappe school official to the charge that leaving Trappe without a school would lower property values, and would also break a two-century tradition.

Another big bone of contention was the Trappe school building itself. Both sides admit it needs repairs. The victors at the meeting wanted to make temporary repairs during the summer. Their opponents wanted to shut it down for a year, try consolidation, and then make a permanent decision.

The victors claimed it would be uneconomic to abandon the building. The committee countered with the opinion that sale of the building would net taxpayers twice what they paid for it.

The meeting, fairly well divided between men and women and Trappe and Collegeville residents, also heard widely-differing interpretations of the teacher problem.

Witmer's group said that only four teachers would be necessary under the merger plan, and that more effective teaching would result from having fewer grades in each room.

Anti-merger residents disputed the saving on the teacher pay and maintained that better education was produced by having the same teacher guide young pupils through several grades.

Presiding over the long, spirited session was the Rev. A. C. Ohi, chairman of the joint board of the Consolidated school.

PUC Official Approves Plan to End Traffic Tie-ups at Grade Crossing

Heat Is Broken By Cool Breeze

Pottstown was spared the forecasted continuation of Wednesday's 92 degree heat yesterday when winds from the west whittled the temperature down to a high of 84, a great relief from the sizzling wave that gripped most of the nation this week.

Abating the humid heat was a cold front moving eastward from the Ohio valley late yesterday.

Slight rainfall here at 1:30, 5:30, 8 and 10 a. m. yesterday failed to affect temperatures, but did boost St. Swithin's average to .529 percent from .500 the day before.

Normally should rule today with a forecast of fair, less humid and cooler.

SYSTEM NEEDS ONLY SANCTION BY RAILROAD

Co-ordination of Signal
And Gates Is Proposed
For Hanover Street Here

A plan to eliminate traffic delays at the Hanover street grade crossing yesterday received the unqualified approval of C. R. Johnson, director of transportation of the Pennsylvania Public Utilities commission, in Harrisburg. It requires only railroad sanction now to go into effect.

The proposed plan was presented to Johnson by Burgess William A. Griffith, Borough Manager of Pottstown, and E. W. Reich, supervisor of telephone, telegraph and signal of the Reading company and Capt. J. Brightbill, chief of the Reading company police unit, at an informal meeting in Harrisburg yesterday morning.

Under the new system, the Reading concourse would be open only to one-way eastbound traffic. A standard traffic signal, operating only when the gates are lowered, would be erected at the Hanover street exit. An arrow would indicate that left turns would be permitted on the red signal.

On Hanover street, immediately north of the concourse, a red and yellow flashing signal would halt traffic at the corner when the gates were lowered, leaving the concourse exit clear for eastbound traffic. In addition, single crossing gates, to block only the northbound lane of traffic on one side and the southbound lane on the other, would be installed instead of the double gates which now block off the whole highway.

A master switch controlling the lights both on the concourse and on Hanover street would be installed in the Good Will fire house to stop traffic when the apparatus is answering a call.

Since the concourse is the private property of the Reading company, Sears said yesterday, after his return from Harrisburg, that the plan must be approved by railroad officials before it can go into effect. The company will have to bear the expense of installing the traffic signal on the concourse, the new type gates, and constructing a concrete station on the High street end of the concourse indicating it was open to only one-way traffic.

According to Sears, the borough would have to pay for the flashing signal on Hanover street. He indicated that he would seek the approval of the borough council for its purchase pending the approval of the plan by the Reading company.

Reich's report of the plan must be made to the company officials, Sears went on, before any action

PRICES ON COAL GO UP TODAY

Average of $1 Increase Put Into Effect; Fuel Scarcity for Winter Seen

Pottstonians who order their coal for next winter will find that, effective today, the price has advanced an average of $1 per ton.

The boosts announced last night bring the prices up to $17.15 for egg, stove, and nut coal; $14.95 for pea, $12.20 for buckwheat, and $10.95 for rice, spokesmen for local retail coal dealers said last night.

As a result of the recent floods of up-state colliers and the heavy shipments abroad, coal is scarce and increasingly expensive, and residents were urged to order their coal soon for next winter, or they might themselves be faced with a home shortage.

Two more increases, of 10-15 cents, were announced for September and October, but local dealers will not pass on the September increase unless the freight rates rise. It was promised.

A reduction of 50 cents per ton for cash payment will be in force. But local coal users face an increased carrying charge of 75 cents per ton as compared to the old charge of 50 cents.

Persons who ordered coal prior to the increase today will receive their fuel at the old price, it was affirmed at last night's meeting.

The announcement of the increases last month produced a flood of orders, and Pottstown coal distributors said that they were as rushed with orders as they are in a heavy winter blizzard.

Young Amateur 'Stars' Entertain 500 at Playground Performance

Pottstown's "future stars of stage and radio," representing six local playgrounds, last night auditioned before a crowd of 500 persons, gathered on the lawns of Manatawny park to watch a grand amateur show, sponsored by the recreation commission.

Dressed in decorative costumes, smattered with Mom's best make-up, and somewhat flustered by all the attention they were getting, the kids stepped up to the microphone like veterans to hand out a three-star performance.

On hand to applaud the show, together with parents, friends, and relatives, was Burgess William A. Griffith, a member of the recreation commission and playground enthusiast, who declared in a brief speech, "I'm just as anxious to see what these children can do, as are the parents present this evening."

Francis Donnon, commission head, said in an address to the audience, "It is inspiring to see so many parents and children here tonight, and to know that they are behind us. I suggest that those who have children enjoying the Summer activities at the various playgrounds, write to the bureau or the Pottstown council to let them know how worthwhile our project is."

Lincoln playground took top honors in the amateur snow accumulating 45 points to win the playground pennant for the year, followed closely by Manatawny playground, which had 38 points.

The 100 children participating were divided into three groups: 4 to 10 year-olds, 10 to 16 year-olds, and group entrants.

Bicycle Licensing To Be Considered At Meeting Tonight

A three-man delegation from the Optimists club will seek to help form at least a tentative borough ordinance licensing and regulating bicycles when they attend tonight's meeting of the police committee of borough council, to be held at 7:30 p. m. in borough hall.

Elwood R. Angstadt, vice president of the Optimists in charge of boys' work, said that he has discussed the matter with Chief of Police James A. Laughhead, who with other borough officials, has approved some kind of accident-preventing legislation.

Earlier this week, Leo F. Spear, chairman of the police committee, announced his support of "something that would curtail the accidents that have been involving bicyclists."

The Optimists' local service club members who have offered to take an active part in the campaign to cut down accidents, have been studying ordinances of communities throughout the country in an effort to make up a sample ordinance to be considered at tonight's meeting.

In brief, the proposed measure would cause all bicycles to be registered and licensed.

Foremen May Form Independent Local

An attempt to organize foremen of the Spicer Manufacturing corporation into a new independent local will be made at a meeting to be held at 3 p. m. tomorrow at the home of Maurice Humes, Rivington Hill, it was announced last night.

Donald W. Rhoads, secretary of the old Spicer Foremen's association, formerly affiliated with the Foremen's Association of America, said that if a new local results it will remain independent for the present.

Spicer's foremen dropped out of the PAA last week, and it was indicated that the action was based on recent developments in the issue of foremen unions' rights as collective bargaining agents.

Recognition of foremen's unions is prohibited under the Taft-Hartley law.

Rhoads added that any future affiliation with the FAA will be one of the topics to be discussed at tomorrow's meeting.

Curtiss to Head Chest Drive Again

William H. Curtiss, local civic leader, will serve as general chairman of the Pottstown Community Chest campaign again this year, Victor J. Roberts Jr., president of the chest, announced yesterday.

"Last year's Community Chest campaign in Pottstown and vicinity was most outstanding," Mr. Roberts declared, "as more than 8000 gifts were received for a grand total of $76,282."

The amount raised was 4 percent higher than the previous year and only four chests in Pennsylvania have similar records.

"Based on a population of 34,000 the per capita amount raised in Pottstown was $2.24. Chests of comparable size reporting to Community Chests and Councils, national organization, had $1.40 per capita gifts."

"Our board of directors are well pleased with Mr. Curtiss' willingness to assume the helm again this year. Through his enthusiasm and spirit he developed a campaign organization of over six hundred workers who did such a good job last year. With favorable conditions, I am sure that we can look forward to another successful fund raising event in October."

President Roberts will preside at a meeting of the Council of Social Agencies to be held at a luncheon today at Laurel Locks restaurant. At this time, five members of the budget committee will be selected.

Senate Probers Subpoena Hughes; Airplane Builder Charges 'Smear'

WASHINGTON, July 31 (AP)—The Senate war investigating committee got out a subpoena for Howard Hughes tonight and the plane builder, in Los Angeles, called it "circus bait."

He also accused Senator Brewster (R-Me.), chairman of the full committee of dragging "a sex implication involving an airline hostess into its investigation of his wartime contracts."

These developments followed a hearing today which developed testimony that the government may have to pay Hughes an extra $2,000,000 before it ever gets the huge flying boat ordered from him, and that the joint chiefs of staff had opposed division of scarce materials to such costly craft.

The subpoena calling for Hughes to appear "forthwith" was issued after Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.), chairman of the subcommittee holding the hearings, said he could get no definite reply to a request for Hughes' voluntary appearance.

Hughes issued a statement, in turn, saying he will appear here Wednesday, that pressure of business will prevent his going sooner, and that Brewster and Ferguson are trying to make it appear they "are hot on the trail of an escaping criminal."

Hughes earlier had issued a statement saying that Brewster is trying to "smear me with a yarn about an airplane hostess."

Brewster was not available for comment on this tonight.

This business goes back to Monday when Hughes reported that Brewster "bumped" $1400 of free plane rides from him. Brewster at that time told reporters in reply that he accepted the rides only in order to accommodate Hughes with a conference.

And the senator added that "a very attractive" hostess whom he did not name had been asked by Hughes to fly to Columbus, Ohio, from Washington with Hughes and Brewster but had refused. Brewster quoted her as having told him she would have had to come back alone with him (Hughes) and she didn't dare do that.

Hughes today produced a signed statement by Harriet Applewick, who he said was the hostess in question, denying the report as "most ridiculous." And Hughes went on to say:

"It is a sad situation when a United States senator has to drag a lot of innocent girls into a congressional hearing in order to achieve personal publicity. But when he finds it necessary to involve an airline hostess with a sex implication, I think that is really the last straw."

Ferguson told reporters he had asked Thomas Shack, Hughes' attorney here, "to telephone Mr. Hughes and tell him to testify."

Tractor-Trailer Truck Rammed by Automobile

Fading to sleep in time, Roger H. Armer, Rhodesdale, Md., drove his car into the back end of a tractor-trailer truck at the intersection of Routes 83 and 100 yesterday afternoon.

The accident occurred at 1:30 o'clock, according to Daniel W. Guidin, North Coventry police chief, as the truck, driven by Harry Y. Weidenbaugh, 1223 South street, was making a right turn onto Route 83. Armer's car was driven directly into the back end of the truck.

Mrs. Armer, who was shaken up by the accident, fainted and was taken to the Pottstown hospital in a Good Will ambulance where she was treated and discharged.

Approximately $200 damage was done to the front of Armer's car, Guidin estimated.

British Hint of Persuasion Effort To Get Refugees From Ships

PORT DE BOUC, France, July 31 (AP)—Authoritative British sources in Marseilles said tonight that the 4500 would be Jewish immigrants to Palestine who remain on three British vessels off Port de Bouc harbor might be persuaded to disembark by a pledge of high priority for legal entry into the Holy Land.

This pledge, they said, would be given by agreement between British and French authorities.

The Jewish refugees, who were intercepted by the British navy when they sought to slip into Palestine aboard the vessel Exodus of 1947 were returned to French waters in three British ships. The had set sail for Palestine from Sete, France.

Since their arrival off Port de Bouc three days ago, they have refused to leave the ships.

Official British quarters indicated they expected a definite decision on the disposition of the refugees within 48 hours.

Ten tons of relief supplies donated by American Jews have been sent aboard the ships.

Protest to Barber Shop Voiced At Hearing on Zoning Variances

Hearings last night at borough hall by the zoning board of adjustments on three applications for variances from the zoning ordinance evoked considerable discussion, although opposition was voiced in only one application. This was in the case of Stephen Knopf, of 331 North Evans street, who seeks to erect a barber shop at 329 North Evans street.

Other applications which were unopposed included one by Henry A. Williams, of 119 Isabella street, who as president of the Needle Eye Social club, asked for an exception which would permit the erection of a cement block building at 721 Isabella street.

Russell Beaton asks for permission to erect a plumbing shop at 339 North Franklin street. Decisions by the board will be announced in short time, it was reported.

The opposition to the barber shop was voiced by Mrs. Elsie Singmaster, owner of property at 325 North Evans street, and by a tenant of that address, Paul Dusko.

Mrs. Singmaster, through an attorney, claimed that the presence of a barber shop in that section would cause a devaluation of residential property and also would cause loitering of men around that section. She also claimed the barber shop building, 14 by 14 feet and ten feet high, would be a eyesore.

Duff Steers Clear Of Definite Support In Presidential Race

HARRISBURG, July 31 (P)—Gov. James E. Duff, refusing to discuss persons or personalities for the 1948 Republican presidential nomination, said today it "would be sheer folly" for the GOP "to tie itself up to a single candidate at this time."

"With both the world and the United States on uncharted courses, who knows what a day may bring forth, let alone a year," the Republican governor of the powerful Keystone state commented in a brief statement.

Explaining he had written the statement earlier in the day en route to the State Capitol, Governor Duff, who hopes to attend the 1948 GOP national convention as a delegate, said he was prompted by the "great wealth of material" available for the party's presidential nomination.

He denied, however, that he was leading any campaign to stop Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York, frequently mentioned for the nomination, or to thwart the aspirations of any other candidate.

Duff also declined to be drawn into a discussion of the chances of Pennsylvania's 15-member delegation backing U. S. Sen. Edward Martin, his predecessor as governor, as its favorite son at the convention.

"I don't think it would be wise reference to any personalities," he said at this time to say anything with told reporters at a news conference.

"I merely think it is enormously important that we do not put ourselves in a position of trying to prejudice the action of the convention almost a year in advance of it."

Governor Duff recently returned from the annual governors conference at Salt Lake City, Utah, but today's statement was the first he has made here on his reactions to political developments at that meeting.

"Why should the Republican party," he asked, "permit the door to be closed now, when not all of even the avowed candidates have told the country what they stand for or what they believe in?"

"To allow any candidate to get too much attention under such circumstances might prove to be pretty much like selling the party a pig in a poke."

State Official Denies Plea for New Drawing

HARRISBURG, July 31 (P)—Charles M. Morrison, secretary of the Commonwealth, refused today to set another drawing for places on the ballot at the Sept. 9 primary for candidates of Philadelphia's Common Pleas court No. 4.

Morrison made public a letter to Walter G. Dugger, Philadelphia attorney and candidate for the Republican judicial nomination, rejecting Dugger's protest on the ballot drawing yesterday.

Dugger claimed positions on the primary ballot had been drawn by the time he reached Morrison's office at 12 25 p. m. Eastern daylight time, and that he had received third place. He contended the drawing should have been held on Eastern standard time, since the notice scheduled it for 12 o'clock, noon, without specifying Standard or Daylight time.

RENO, Nev. July 31 (P)—Harvey Graham, 40, former New York and Philadelphia newspaperman, shot and killed his 2-year-old daughter at his dude ranch early today, wounded his wife and then committed suicide, Sheriff Ray Root reported.

Sheriff Root's report blamed the tragedy on "marital and financial" troubles.

The daughter Sandra was shot through the side and killed outright. Mrs. Louise Graham, 38, was shot in the upper chest but was given a fair chance to survive.

The sheriff said the Graham then sat down on the floor and shot himself in the head with a .38 caliber pistol. He died later in a hospital. An infant daughter, Michele, who was sleeping at the foot of the little girl's bed, was not harmed.

Governor Grants 10 Percent Wage Hike To State Employees, Effective Sept. 1

HARRISBURG, July 31 (P)—Announcing plans for an "average over-all" 10 percent increase for 40,000 Commonwealth workers before Sept. 1, Gov. James H. Duff took up with his State officials today details of the State's newest cost-of-living pay boost.

The action came as Ray F. Smock, State highway's secretary, announced a new 65 cents an hour minimum for road maintenance workers and long pending of the work week of repair crews until Oct. 1 to clear up a heavy backlog of road work.

Duff told a news conference State employees are entitled to a "step-in salary the same as everybody else" and then added:

"This doesn't mean everybody is going to get 10 percent. Some will get more and some will get less. It depends on a number of factors I am going to discuss with my cabinet."

He declined to hazard a guess at the cost of the boost but reminded that when the current state budget was prepared department heads were advised to include in their requests provision for an average increase of 10 percent.

The last increase granted State workers—it was a five-to-15 percent boost authorized by Sen. Edward Martin as governor in September, 1946—cost between $7,000,000 and $8,000,000.

Duff said that some merit increases have already been granted and no additional pay boost will be in sight for such workers if they have attained the level proposed under the new plan.

Asked if the plan would include institutional and hourly workers as well as salaried employees, the Governor replied "It will cover everybody."

Highways Secretary Smock said in his announcement that the new minimum wage, effective tomorrow, will be the highest paid by any state and other classes of hourly help will be increased proportionately. The old minimum was 80 cents an hour.

In announcing the temporary dropping of the 40-hour work week for maintenance crews, Smock said "This change was made necessary in an effort to complete the department's maintenance work which has been seriously curtailed throughout the State because of weather conditions."

He added that due to Spring and Summer storms, less than 40 percent of the State's construction program is complete and slightly more than 40 percent of the reconstruction.

A total of 17 American companies are producing passenger cars, 38 are turning out trucks and 17 are making buses.

AIR POWER IS PEACE POWER!

HELP BUILD AMERICA'S AIR POWER ON AIR FORCE DAY, AUGUST 1st

No one today questions the fact that the whole future of the United States may rest in the very clouds over your head. The security of this country demands strong, well-trained, well-equipped Air Forces, superior to any in the world.

And the new, reorganized Air Forces give thousands of eligible young men an opportunity to take an active part in building America's Air Power . . . on the ground as well as in the sky.

You may, for example, enlist in the Air Forces for three years. If you have a specialty which will qualify you, you may also be able to enlist in a grade at higher pay.

If you have had Air Forces experience, you may join the Air Reserve and continue your military aviation training outside of business hours.

Or you may join the Air National Guard and perhaps become eligible for advanced technical training at special Air National Guard schools.

Think it over. If there are Air Force Day exhibits in your locality, be sure to visit them on August 1st. If no demonstrations are to be held nearby, get a copy of the new Air Forces pamphlet, "Know Your Air Forces," at your U. S. Army Recruiting Station.

NOW — THE WORLD'S GREATEST OPPORTUNITY FOR A CAREER IN AVIATION

Today the Army Air Forces offer high school graduates an unprecedented opportunity to get the finest aviation schooling on earth — and select your school or course before you enlist.

The AAF Career Plan is unlike anything ever offered before. It permits selected high school graduates to apply and qualify for AAF specialized courses of their own choice. Simply go to your U. S. Army Recruiting Station, explain the kind of aviation training you want and you will receive an application blank and a complete list of available courses.

When you are selected to attend the course of your choice, you enlist in the Army Air Forces for 3, 4 or 5 years. After your basic training period you are guaranteed the education you have selected to make you a specialist in the type of work you have chosen.

Get a list of all the schools and courses open to you under the AAF Aviation Career Plan at your nearest U. S. Army Recruiting Station.

An Appointment Deserved

A POTTSTOWN borough council move that should be made in the public interest is the re-appointment of Herbert S. Myers, 1071 South street, as a member of the civil service commission.

Mr. Myers has served as a member of the commission for six years, or for the entire life of that body. He was chairman, took a great deal of interest in his duties, gave a tremendous amount of his own time to a position which paid no salary.

During the term of his office, the Pottstown police force became one of the best conducted in the county. The caliber of its members was raised. Pottstown obtained a good police force of intelligent men because the commission operated on a non-political basis.

In the past, a Pottstown policeman had to vote right, always faced the danger of losing his job if his political party was ousted from borough hall. Mr. Myers and his commission changed that, saw that every member, regardless of his political affiliations, got the same treatment.

Politics was out of the police department!

So, too, politics should not enter into an appointment to the police civil service commission.

Mr. Myers' term has expired. He should receive another appointment, because he is the best qualified man in Pottstown to hold the job. He knows the civil service rules thoroughly. He personally has urged promising, intelligent young men to join the Pottstown police force. He has done much to make the force into an efficient body of ambitious young men.

Mr. Myers has many friends and admirers in the industrial world. For many years he was one of the laboring leaders at Epicer's. There his fellow workers knew him as a square shooter, an honest, upright citizen.

His record as chairman of the commission entitles him to a re-appointment.

Pottstown's entire body of councilmen should vote unanimously for his re-appointment so as to recognize experience, give heart to other persons who willingly will serve the community without pay if they know their efforts are appreciated.

How to Influence Drivers

AN ETIQUET book is a pretty scary thing. If you read it from cover to cover, yet actually all those hundreds of rules boil down to just one thing—constant thoughtfulness and consideration for other people.

That kind of etiquette is every bit as important when driving a car, because while rudeness and lack of consideration may cost you some friends, on the highway they are terribly apt to cost a life—maybe your own, maybe someone else's.

A courteous driver never expects other motorists to read his mind: he makes his intentions clearly known, well in advance. He signals before turning, before slowing down, before stopping. At other times he refrains from pointing, waving, or making other confusing motions with his signaling arm.

If everybody applied even that tiny bit of highway etiquette, a human life could be saved every day of the year!

Check Engine Number

PURCHASERS of used cars who do not check the engine and manufacturer's number against their bill of sale or certificate of title may find themselves in possession of a stolen car, subject of confiscation by the police, according to a warning by Colonel C. M. Wilhelm, Commissioner, Pennsylvania State police.

The commissioner also pointed out that any prospective purchaser not familiar with the location of engine and manufacturer's numbers, or in doubt of their authenticity, should have them checked at any State Police station or official inspection station.

A legitimate seller should not object to such a check.

Pilots Fear Rabbit Cargo

IN LOS ANGELES a siege of bad weather prompted eight Sioux Airways cargo planes with a load of Detroit-grown tomato plants when the clouds rolled away, the plants had grown to 14 plane-loads.

Immediately a nightmare possibility struck several of the pilots: "Suppose we get a load of rabbits!"

Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by the papers where an editorial warns potential vacationers to "avoid snakes." That includes, of course, the kind that comes in bottles.

An item says in James Bay, Canada, the mosquitoes are "as big as wasps." What about the wasps? Are they as big as eagles?

And say: Time may not stand still, but often it seems to come back. All of which is preliminary to reporting that the beer-glass figure again is fashionable!

Don't Tax the Plants

To the Editor: Worker suggests that Pottstown industry be taxed either on volume production or on payrolls ("Tax the Corporations," Readers Say, July 30).

He says that "people are soaked too much" and yet the borough needs money. He asks, "Does anybody seriously suggest that Pottstown corporations are so greedy that they will not help pay for community projects that will benefit the town?"

Most of Pottstown's big industries, such as Firestone, Bethlehem Steel, Doehlers and Spicer's are owned by numerous stockholders scattered all over the nation. Corporation officers have a duty to the many stockholders to carry on business as efficiently as possible.

These major industries are only subordinate plants of the parent companies. They have settled here for various favorable reasons, but for something unfavorable like additional taxation they would move out.

That would mean the loss of many direct jobs. It would mean also the loss of many indirect jobs at the grocery stores, the filling stations and department stores. This isn't a matter of "greed" by corporations. Corporations tend to go where they can operate most efficiently and economically, just as labor tends to go where wages are highest.

Hand Signals Explained

To the Editor: Recently readers have complained of the poor manners of motorists in not indicating what they expect to do.

Maybe it's because the average motorist doesn't seem to understand hand signals. Every motorist should know that:

An outstretched hand means a left turn.

An arm extended from the car with hand stretched upward means a right turn.

An arm extended from the car and the hand pointed down means the driver is going to stop.

That's all there is to it, and it certainly means a lot to the driver behind you if he knows what you intend to do.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

SUSAN R. 24, is a bride of seven months.

"Dr. Crane, when I married, I planned to have a home and children," she began our interview.

"My husband and I are in modest circumstances. He is 29 and a young professional man, with a good future.

"How many children do you think a couple in our circumstances ought to have, Dr. Crane? And how far apart should children be, in order to develop best?"

Children are excellent marriage insurance and develop their parents' personalities so the latter make much better citizens. Childless couples often care little about the schools or playgrounds, Boy and Girl Scouts, YMCA, YWCA, CYO, etc.

But parents usually take a vital interest in all such matters. You can almost pick out a parent from a non-parent of equal age, by the more mellowed, extroverted personality of the parent.

At the age of 60, we might divide adults into four general classes. The most self-centered and introverted would usually be the unmarried. Bachelors and spinsters are usually quite egocentric, and often overly concerned about their internal organs, so they furnish a large percentage of our hypochondriacs.

The next most self-centered group would be the childless married couples. They have broader interests than the bachelors and old maids, but are not as extroverted as the married couples with children, who rank third.

But the couples with children and also grandchildren, will probably be most mellowed or extroverted. They will be in closer touch with reality and current conditions, and have the most pleasing personalities.

Susan is to be commended for the matter-of-fact way in which she plans her family. She is certainly old enough to have her first child within the next year. And she should have at least three youngsters.

For the parents never see the full psychological effects of children unless they have a "middle" child, whose personality differs markedly from the oldest as well as that of the youngest. It obviously takes three children before there is this middle child.

For the sake of the child's proper development, moreover, we psychologists advise parents to have children in pairs, spaced about two years apart.

Children educate children far more than most adults realize, so don't handicap an "only" child by depriving him of a brother or sister.

This age difference of two years enables the older to be far enough ahead to avoid violent battles over who is stronger. But it is not so great that the children have little in common.

So try not to let more than two years elapse between your first and second babies. After you have had two youngsters, you may permit a longer time interval to occur.

But if you then have a third, better have a fourth to serve as playmate for him. The proper way to have children is in pairs.

And don't defer children too long. Better borrow money and pay for them on the installment plan, even if you forego a new automobile to do so. Moreover, when the parents themselves are younger, they are less cross and irritable. They can put up with babies with less nervous strain.

Babies are not as expensive as many people believe, unless fond mamma or papa gets the notion that "nothing is too good for baby." Babies need few clothes besides diapers and shirts for at least a year. Then a few pairs of overalls become valuable.

It usually isn't till the second child that parents can be calm about caring for a baby, anyway. With the first they are overly attentive, careful or nervous. With the second they can relax and really enjoy parenthood.

Steel Leaders Asked To Step Up Production

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, July 31 — President Truman's economic advisers have undertaken a quiet campaign to persuade leaders of the steel industry to expand production capacity by approximately 10 percent. Otherwise, they maintain that a world and domestic crisis may result from the shortage of this basic product for homes, factories, ships, railroads, motor vehicles.

The industry's present capacity is estimated at 91,000,000 net tons, although it frequently falls below that figure. The United States alone is absorbing that amount, but it is not sufficient to fill the backlog of orders for heavy goods. The scarcity is the greatest contributory cause to the current inflation of prices, and the level will continue to rise unless checked by a larger output.

The situation will become even more critical when European nations submit their inventory under the Marshall plan. Indeed, Administration spokesmen advance the argument that American inability to satisfy foreign countries' demands, especially in view of the way in which Secretary Marshall's Harvard program buoyed their hopes, will give a black eye to our industrial system of free enterprise.

Here again, as they have done in urging Congress to appropriate funds for foreign relief, Mr. Truman's aides have raised the "Russian bogey." They have argued, in their talks with representatives of big and big steel, that any failure to make good will contribute to the spread of Communism here and abroad.

ARGUMENT: Steel statistics sharpen the argument of the government's salesmen. In 1940 the world produced and consumed approximately 156,000,000 ingot tons of steel. It is true that the war and the rearmament race fattened demand, but it is believed that postwar requirements and expansion will take up that slack.

The United States manufactured 67,000,000 tons of the 1940 total, and the balance of 89,000,000 came principally from the Saar, England and France. It is figured that steel sent abroad has declined by at least 30,000,000 tons from the 1940 peak, and that the amount cannot be increased quickly.

Thus the expansionists maintain that American capacity should be boosted from 91,000,000 to at least 100,000,000 tons. They insist that additional output will bring such a reduction in the prices of heavy goods — automobiles, washing machines, radios, etc.—that there will be a long-time market for the makers of steel.

EARNINGS: Although the industry claims that it has not made excessively large profits over a long period, earnings reached 18.1 percent for the first quarter of 1947, after taxes, interest, depreciation and other charges. As indication of current and prospective demand, this figure was almost nine times as much as the amount for the first quarter of 1946.

In their rather sharp encounters with the industry's leaders, Mr. Truman's agents have recalled that the companies' experts have figured wrong on several critical occasions. They disputed FDR's statements early in the war that capacity was equal to future needs, but they had to increase facilities by almost 15 percent. Their more recent estimate that 95,000,000 tons would meet postwar demands has been challenged by the event.

President Truman has a personal stake in the controversy. His own political prosperity may hang on the outcome. For, unless the disappearance of scarcities produces a general leveling-off of prices, and a step-up in supplies for a hungry world, his domestic and foreign program may crack up on the eve of the 1948 election.

BREAKUP: The resignation of Ben Cohen marks the final disappearance of the famous "brain trust" which Franklin D. Roosevelt organized and brought to the Capital in 1932. Although Cohen was the most modest and perhaps the ablest of the lot, he was the legal and intellectual leader of that unique organization.

The breakup of this dashing, spectacular, experimental group has definite economic and political significance to the different spirit and character of the Truman Administration. The Rooseveltians, who were admittedly amateurs at statecraft, were uneasy under the Missouriian. In every department, notably State, Treasury, Justice, Agriculture and Interior, he has turned to trained, conservative experienced men.

He was not sympathetic to the brain trusters.

The "invaders" themselves changed as they reached middle age and wearied of "rolling up their sleeves and remaking the world." They slowed down, mentally and physically. Although representing themselves as professional do-gooders and idealists, they found that the fleshpots were not to be despised.

PAY: Most of them have profited from their public service spree. In a material way they are infinitely better off than they were when they descended, all unknown, upon Washington.

Those who have returned to the law—Tommy Corcoran, A. Berle, Thurman Arnold, Paul Porter, Dean Acheson—will collect fatter fees than before. "Steve" Early is supposed to make $75,000 as a Pullman vice president. Rex Tugwell earns more as a professor. Henry A. Wallace draws down $25,000 a year. The Roosevelt family is not doing too badly.

Ex-reporter "Mike" Straus receives more as Reclamation Commissioner than he did when covering the Senate. His former boss, Harold L. Ickes, has done well on his writing, lecturing and curmudgeoning. Even "Archie" MacLeish may sell more poems than when his output was known only to a small circle of intellectuals.

It seems that "idealism" can be made to pay, if properly publicized.

In Hollywood

By JIMMIE FIDLER

HOLLYWOOD, July 31 — Had lunch with a distinguished English drama critic the other noon, and wound up in an argument—as I usually do when talking with an Englishman. Since our debate had to do with something that only theatre goers can decide, I'll invite you to be the jury.

My British conferee touched off the argument by sneering at the youthful "gauceness" of American leading men. "They're too young to know even the rudiments of good acting," he contended, and then, of course, pointed with pride to the English system which makes it virtually mandatory for an actor to be middle aged before he's entrusted with leading roles.

I couldn't deny the fact that many of our leading young Romeos are poor actors, any more than I could deny the obvious fact that additional years of experience will improve their ability. But I've seen too many British-made pictures in which men old enough to play grandfathers, without makeup, try to portray young lovers, to swallow his criticisms without a few comebacks.

It seems to me that credibility is every bit as important to good entertainment as is good acting. I, personally, can't enjoy a picture that I can't believe. And I can no more accept a 55-year-old "great actor" playing a 25-year-old lover than I could accept Frank Sinatra portraying a professional heavy-weight wrestler.

What do you think?

MEMORIES THAT BLESS

AND BURN: When Hollywood writers to whom Joan Crawford confided her overpowering yearning for children (and sex, always did) considered her insincere; she's since adopted four. When stunt woman Cherie May, representing herself as an experienced flyer, undertook to transfer from one plane to another in mid-air for an MGM thriller — then confessed, after accomplishing the feat, that she'd never been in a plane before. . . . When Jane Withers, about nine years old, gave 20th Century-Fox a Grade A kidnapping scare by going on a tour of the back lot and falling asleep in an abandoned dressing room. . . . When the late W. C. Fields played a difficult golf shot from the edge of a water hazard — then lost his balance and fell in the brook.

Whenever the average screen star runs low on palaver about the hit he scored in his last picture and the hit he expects to score in his next one, almost invariably changes the subject to his fierce longing to "get away from it all." With the average actor it's just talk and nothing more but Joel McCrea isn't "average." I've never known another stars, with the single exception of Ronald Colman, who has actually arranged his life in such fashion that between pictures he's completely divorced from everything pertaining to show business. Joel, Frances Dee and their two boys live on a practical, money-making ranch some forty miles from town — and live there so positively that they almost never come to Hollywood unless forced to by business. I don't think their two boys see town four times in the average year. This Summer they earned a vacation by baling all the hay on the ranch. Joel took them still farther from Hollywood — on a camping trip to the High Sierra.

After the club J wins the 10 lead, why should South not attempt two diamond finesses in seeking to make a No Trump game?

How Big a Ten-spot Is

A LOWLY ten-spot can be a great big card in some hands. Failure to hold it, in a suit with higher honors, can alter entirely the correct way to play the combination to favor getting the best possible results. Countless players disregard the fact, when leading a queen or jack toward an ace or king, when instead they should lead a small card, sliding in one of the intermediate honors only if the first opponent to play puts on a low one. If that defender comes in with the missing honor, the declarer then manages to save one of his intermediates.

Three quick diamond tricks put South into a position which necessitated his cleaning up the rest of them. That appeared an impossible unless three finesses would work—against which the odds were overwhelming. West had to hold the heart K and East the two black kings. But anyway, there was nothing to do but try.

East's return to the fourth trick was the club 4 so that South was instantly up against one of his finessing situations. He stuck in the Q and it held. So far so good. Next he decided to reach dummy via the heart finesse. He led the J, West covered with the K and the A won. Now he could see that he was home if the spade finesse would work.

But right there he went wrong. He led the spade J from dummy. When the K forced the A, his contract was cooked. There was now no earthly way to prevent the 10 from winning the third spade trick, as three higher honors, the J, K and A, had been used up on one trick.

To protect himself, South should have provided for the very situation that happened to exist. Because he lacked the 10, he should have led low from the dummy prepared to play the 10 if East played low. The A if he played the K. Notice that the heart suit was an entirely different proposition because, in addition to the A, Q and J, South had the 10. In that suit he could afford to risk squandering the J.

HOWARD HUGHES' now-famous press agent, Johnny Meyer, can order another crate of aspirin. A pretty local hat check girl—who has served semesters in the Stock, El Morocco and Bill's Gay Nineties — is on the verge of launching him in another headline splash. Jacqueline Daly, a former Van Johnson fiancée, is having a heavy effect on Robert Walker. . . . Comedian Eddie Foy, who was near death not many months ago, is getting stern warnings from his doctors. They want him to stay out of the gay places—as entertainer or customer. . . . The Carol Reeds—his England's foremost whodunit, director, and actress — are Diana Wynyard, the actress — have Reno in the bean-o . . . Friends say Nancy Oakes DeMarigny's real love is one of Ernest Hemingway's sons. . . . Rita Hayworth, who drew a bad press in France, is the Bronx fourth estate. . . . The "C" paper commenting that she had three former Scotland Yard inspectors guarding her, headlined: "Is This America's Most Precious Export?"

Diane Garrett has her choice of three: David Rose, Mickey Rooney and Charles Chaplin Jr. . . . The Parkyakarkuses (he's Harry Einstein, the dialect comedian) are lullabying a baby boy. . . . Johnny Broderick, the fabulous cop, intends to "take a rest" before making any deals on his life story. He's had a dozen offers from promoters who want to back him in a bar or eating place. . . . Mrs. Grace Brown, former wife of part-time Lawrence Tibbett, is seeking a divorce from her current husband, a mercantile marine officer. She will ask the courts for permission to re-name the name of Mrs. Grace Thobert. . . . A scion of the wealthy Morgan clan has popped the 964 query to Claire Trzaska, the pretty Sheraton Lounge waitress. . . . Flexious Jane Russell will make another attempt to exploit her charms via the night club singing route.

Peculiarly rumors have it that David Niven may be the next English actor to be knighted by the King. . . . Michael Farmer, Peggy Joyce Hopkins and a detective to guard her ice were a cozy trio in the night club sector last week. . . . One of the bus boys at a Third ave. hash house drives to work every morning in a Mercedes-Benz. He's the interesting black sheep of a very proper family.

The search for a lead for the film story of Rudolph Valentino is narrowing down excitingly. The list of candidates has been cut down to ten. . . . Roberta Jones, a virtually unknown screen actress, is being mentioned for the feminine lead in "Allegro," the forthcoming Rodgers-Hammerstein musical. . . . Bandieauer Skaten Henderson and singer Beryl Davis are trading lessons—he teaches her to fly, she teaches him to cook.

Notes on the Howard Hughes Senate investigation, which is Topic A on Broadway at this writing. Most of the glamor girls subpoenaed by the probes love the publicity they're getting, but are furious when the U. S. marshals informed them they would be paid only their transportation and $3 a day for living expenses while they were in Washington. "It's a plot," pointed one beauty, "to force us to allow Senators to buy us dinner!" . . . Maria Harrington, listed as one of the belles scheduled to testify, probably won't. She's in Switzerland. . . . Doris Lilly, however, will be there—killing two birds with one stone. Her dinner partner will be Archduke Felix of Austria. . . . There are reports that Hughes has been "asked" to sell his interests in TWA. . . . Certain local authorities are happy as clams because the flashy Senate probe took editors' minds (and space) away from the police-bloody graft investigation.

Singe & Shampoo... White on Tails...

BATTLE RAGES — The past Tuesday a correspondent minimized the worth of two old barber shop standbys, the singe and egg shampoo. Now "Barber's Rich," whose knowledge points to his identity as a Pottstown barber, quotes the "Manual on Barber Practice and Science," which publication was approved by the State Board of Examiners. The manual admits singeing is a hoax. Its quote is: "Singeing is of little benefit to the hair. In some cases, where the hair is splitting, it forms a char at the end, and gives temporary relief." But "the egg shampoo," says "Barber's Rich," is the real McCoy, is so good that one is being ballyhoosed nationally as a great boon. Of egg shampoos, the "manual" says: "It cleanses the scalp without taking away any of the natural oil. It is recommended to dry, brittle hair, and where there are signs of scalp irritations."

PRO AND CON — Paul Kilburn, Pottstown pet house proprietor, comes up with evidence for and against the assertion that if a dog has white markings anywhere on its body, it'll have a white-tipped tail. Kilburn reported yesterday he bought a litter of eight collie-shepherds from P. M. Libardoni, Porters Mill, Pottstown RD 1. Four had white markings on the collar and chest. Each of the four had white tipped tails. The other four had no white markings, so there was no white on tails. But wait! Kilburn discussed the oddity with Henry Overholzer, of Tarahall Kennels, Birdsboro, who said he cut off "hundreds of cockers' tails," found none white-tipped. So the cocker is an exception to the rule. So the dog fanciers can't say whether the axiom applies to all dogs of all breeds, or only to a few. Nor can they say just which are the exceptions.

TEACHER — Harvey LeRoy Wilson, Pottstown musician and former music instructor as well as band leader at Pottstown High school, is following his profession while studying for his doctor's degree at the University of Pennsylvania. Wilson is studying for the degree of doctor of education with director of music education his field of specialization. But on the side he is teaching two courses in music education. First is "demonstration high school band," which includes directing a high school band and a high school mixed choral group. School pupils of the Philadelphia area compose the band. Second course Wilson teaches is "The Marching Band," which is a practical study of the marching band. The Summer High school band, of which Wilson is conductor, played a concert last night at the University of Pennsylvania. Five Pottstown school age musicians participated. They were Richard Brendlinger, clarinet; Howard Bowden, cornet; Thomas Muller, tuba; Jack Ziegler, snare drum, and Arthur Jacobs, tympani.

$175 Fire Loss for July Is Reported by Lindauer

Borough fire loss for July was $175, Fire Chief Richard E. Lindauer said yesterday. This compares with the high of $1500 in 1942, and the low loss in 1946.

Fire companies answered seven town telephone calls, one out-of-town call, and two alarms. Seven blazes were in buildings; two were outdoors.

The basic industries of New Zealand are farming and processing of farm products.

Consumer Demand Seen Top Factor In Future Meat Prices; Drop Expected

WASHINGTON, July 31 (AP)—The agriculture department said tonight meat prices may come down in the Fall and Winter, but the amount will be governed largely by consumers themselves.

It said that if demand for meat continues strong, the price decline may be modest. But prices would drop substantially by late in the year, it added, should consumer incomes and spending decline materially.

The department made no forecast as to future consumer demand and income. It noted that employment and national income have risen to record heights.

The prediction of possible lower prices is based on prospects that marketing of slaughter hogs and cattle will increase in the Fall and reach a peak in the Winter.

The normal Fall increase in beef production from grass-fed cattle may be a little later than usual, the department said, because of the excellent condition of pastures this year. Normally these cattle start moving to market in large volume during late August and September.

The department said hog marketings are likely to be somewhat greater during the October-March period than a year earlier, but that the animals may be lighter in weight unless an unusually large quantity of this year's corn turns out to be of high moisture content, requiring heavy feeding during the Winter to prevent its spoilage.

The department said meat prices have climbed to record levels. An above average demand from lower-income families was given as an important factor. Continued shortages of some consumer durable goods were also given as factors in the meat price situation.

The department said that "pending for meat increases relatively more than most other foods when consumer income is in the lower income brackets increases."

Taking notice of uncertain corn crop prospects the department said smaller feed grain production this year would not cause a decrease in meat production on this year but would lower the output next year.

Because of the late start of the corn crop it is possible that the quantity of soft and wet corn—that is corn caused by falling frosts before it has time to mature and dry—will be greater than usual. This will tend to increase somewhat the demand for cattle for fattening and pigs for feeding before the corn spoils.

Steelworker Takes Own Life After Quarrel

PITTSBURGH, July 31 (AP)—A lovers' quarrel ended in the death of an Oakland steelworker after the attempted shooting of a woman, Police Lt. John Cavanaugh reported.

Cavanaugh said Michael Magvar, 45, took his own life last night after attempting to shoot Mrs. Pearl Molnar because she refused to marry him. He said Magvar first aimed at the woman and pulled the trigger.

The gun failed to fire and Mrs. Molnar fled. Cavanaugh said Magvar then shot himself.

Isolates 'Virus'

A member of the Osaka university in Japan, Dr. Ryojun Kinoshita (above), who has long worked on cancer research, claims that he has for the first time isolated a "cancer virus," in mammals. The Japanese scientist, who has been caring for atomic radiation victims of the Hiroshima A-bomb blast, said that his research may prove that cancer is not hereditary but that it is transmissible.

Expect Large Crowd At Sunday Concert

Baptist Official Says Veto Clause Drawback to U. N.

COPENHAGEN, July 31 (AP)—The United Nations is far from perfect from a Christian viewpoint, but Baptists accept it as the nearest "practical answer to Christian demands in building a righteous society that has yet appeared," Dr. Joseph M. Dawson, executive secretary of the United States Baptist joint conference committee on public relations, declared today.

Dawson, formerly of Waco, Texas, and now of Washington, D. C., told the second full meeting of the Baptist World Alliance's seventh congress that the veto power of the great powers in the U. N. Security Council was "the most objectionable feature of the whole United Nations structure."

The congress heard a report from E. Schroeder, leading German Baptist, who said that the church in Germany had lost practically all its members between the ages of 20 and 50 during the war and that approximately 12,000 Baptists face "an unknown future" in "Soviet-dominated territories of East Germany and Poland."

The executive council voted to make Washington the permanent headquarters of the Baptist World Alliance and another office is to be established in London.

No decision has been reached as to whether the Baptists should affiliate with the world council of churches.

Man Jailed Year; Wife Fails to Press Bigamy Charges

CHICAGO, July 31 (AP) — An abandoned wife, who found an apartment for her husband and his new wife and acted as a baby sitter for his family, refused to press bigamy charges today — but the husband was sentenced to a year in the house of correction, anyway.

The charge was changed to contributing to the dependency of a minor after Mrs. Suzanne Marome, 40, refused to press her bigamy charge against Beloit Marome, 26, a candy cook, saying:

"I loved him when I married him and I guess I still love him."

The first Mrs. Marome said they were married in 1941, but that her husband left her in 1945, saying he was getting a Florida divorce.

Later he returned to Chicago with Martha Thompson Marome, 28, of Chicago, following their marriage in Whiteville, N.C., July 1, 1945, and asked wife No. 1 to get them an apartment, she related.

"So I found them an apartment in the building where I lived," said Mrs. Marome No. 1. "Not only that but I've been acting as their baby sitter part of the time."

Marome was arrested July 17 when police said they found two children abandoned in his flat. The children were Martha Jane, daughter of the second Mrs. Marome by a previous marriage, and Beloit J., 1, son of Marome and wife No. 2.

The second Mrs. Marome, an expectant mother, told Judge Joseph Hermes of Felony court that she did not know Marome had been married before, "although he told me some woman in Chicago had been chasing him."

She was given a year probation on a charge of contributing to the dependency of a minor.

McKeesport Man Quizzed in Slaying

State police of the Collegeville barracks yesterday were checking a sex criminal, under arrest at McKeesport, in connection with the rape-murder of five-year-old Carol Ann Thompson, Upper Gwynedd, the past May 10.

The prisoner, John Faye, 35, formerly of Marcus Hook, is charged with attacking a five-year-old girl in that city Wednesday night.

According to reports, Faye, a steelworker, entered the basement of a house where three small children were playing and attacked the youngest. She is in serious condition at a hospital.

When arrested, police said, Faye carried an automobile drivers license issued to him while he lived in Chester where he worked at a ship yard.

He has been making his home at McKeesport for the past month.

The Thompson girl's body was found in a well in Worcester township several hours after she was seen getting into a black sedan in front of her home.

3-Year-Old Motorist Sends Two to Hospital

SCRANTON, July 31 (AP)—Police here came upon a three-year-old auto driver today but decided not to arrest him for operating a car without a license, although he sent two men to a hospital for treatment.

Albert Prokopovitch, 29, Tavor Borough, came to Scranton to shop for a pair of trousers and entered a central city store, taking his little son with him. As daddy tried on some new pants he handed Albert Jr., the keys to his auto to hold. The boy walked from the store, climbed into the car, placed a key in the ignition switch and stepped on the starter.

The auto, in reverse gear, backed up, struck a man standing in the doorway of the store, and came to a halt. The boy's father, hearing his son's screams, tried to rush to him but fell and injured his head.

Mensch, Hillegass Are Rotary Guests; Park Film Shown

County Commissioners Raymond K. Mensch and Foster C. Hillegass and Superintendent of Montgomery County Park Otto Quinke were guests of the 70 Rotarians present at last night's meeting in the Elks' home.

Quinke showed his hosts color films of the park, giving them a glimpse of all parts of the area in all seasons of the year, as well as displaying its Summer swimming and sports attractions.

He also gave a short history of the park, which was opened in 1939. Last year, Quinke said, 2,500,000 persons visited the area, with 1,500,000 already counted this season.

Willard L. Kline, chairman of the program committee, reported that Frazier Hunt, newspaperman and correspondent, would be the guest speaker at next Thursday's meeting.

Hunt's topic will be "Russia As I See It." He is well qualified to speak on this subject, Kline said, since he is the only American newspaperman in Russia for six months after the 1917 Revolution, and in the past 30 years has made six extended trips to that country.

Hunt, whose home now is in Bucks county, has lived in England and on the Continent during many of the past 30 years, and during World War II wrote both from the European and Pacific battlefronts. In the Pacific area, he was associated closely with General Douglas MacArthur.

He has written ten books, including his most recent work, "MacArthur and the War against Japan."

Two Get Jail Terms In Sugar Conspiracy

SANTA FE, N. M., July 31 (AP) — A. M. Bartlett, Hobbs, N. M., Dr. Pepper Bottling company official, today was fined $30,000 and sentenced to five years in Federal prison, and Mrs. Trudy S. Edwards was sentenced to one year in prison on their convictions in two Government sugar fraud indictments.

The Government charged they were responsible for illegal withdrawal of 1,250,000 pounds of industrial rationed sugar and its diversion to soft drinks manufacture.

Bartlett was fined $10,000 on each of three counts in the first indictment, which charged he and Mrs. Edwards falsified ration records at the Lea county State bank, and was sentenced to serve five years on each of four counts. The fines were cumulative, but the sentences are to run concurrently.

Mrs. Edwards drew one on each of the four counts, to run concurrently.

In the second indictment on which the two were convicted the past week of conspiracy to defraud the United States, Bartlett was placed on probation for five years following the termination of his prison sentence, conditioned on payment of fines assessed in the other conviction.

Mrs. Edwards was placed on two years probation.

Where Blast Killed Ten Women

This closeup shows part of the debris-strewn front of a beauty shop in Harrisonburg, Va., after it was ripped apart by an explosion, killing at least ten women. Thirty persons were admitted to the hospital for injuries and 25 remained for treatment. The blast blew away a portion of an adjoining jewelry store.

Criminal Admits Strangling Youth

CHICAGO, July 31 (AP) — The body of a three and one-half-year-old boy was found in a West side alleyway today, and Police Capt. Frank Gill said a known sex criminal had admitted taking the child from his bed last night and strangling him.

Capt. Gill quoted Joseph Bortnyak, 27, as stating orally that he had strangled Charles Bradley, 3½, and saying, "I don't know why I did it."

Two teen age boys found Charles body beneath a rear stairway 600 feet from his home.

Police had searched for the boy since his father reported him missing at 11:30 last night.

Bortnyak was arrested in a roundup of known sex offenders, and police said he at first admitted abducting the boy but denied harming him. Police quoted him as saying he had taken the boy after a drinking spree.

Capt. Gill said Bortnyak, recently released from county jail after serving a one-year term for contributing to the delinquency of a minor, had made an oral statement that he took the boy from his bed as he slept shortly before 11 o'clock last night.

No Inquests Planned Into Two Fatalities

Dr. Paul D. Good, Berks county coroner, said last night that he would not hold an inquest into the deaths of two Reading railroad company workers who were killed on Route 422 near Baumstown late Wednesday night.

"There will be no investigation because it was apparently the pedestrians' fault," he declared, "and the drivers of the cars will not be held for police action."

The pair, Louis Zephar and Charles Johnson, were killed within a few minutes of each other as they were walking along the pike between 10:40 p. m. Wednesday.

Zephar was struck as he was crossing the road near Rummy's Tavern, and while State police were investigating, they were informed that Johnson had been hit about one quarter mile east of the spot.

Zephar was killed immediately and Johnson died on his way to St. Joseph's hospital, Reading, where he was taken in a hospital ambulance.

Police were unable to find the families of the two men. Reading company officials said that they

France Still Hit By Disasters; Two Die in Mine Cave-in

PARIS, July 31 (AP)—A string of French disasters continued today with a mine cave-in at Lille in which two lives were lost. Fifty persons have been killed since Monday in fires, explosions and accidents.

The mine cave-in came as the Paris prefecture tentatively attributed the death of 22 women inmates of a makeshift prison last night to asphyxiation caused by an explosion of celluloid stocks in the common cell where the women slept.

The celluloid, used by the women in making decorations for funeral wreaths, apparently caught fire from lightning.

Roger Leonard, Paris prefect and director of penitentiaries, said 21 women were dead when guards reached the scene and another died in a hospital. The prison housed 400 women convicts.

The blackened bodies of the victims were examined to test the theory that they might have been killed by a freak electrical fireball exploding in their cell.

The women had opened the windows wide before going to bed. When guards broke into the room they found only a small fire which was quickly extinguished. Most of the women were still on their beds.

Police also were investigating the mishap to a Paris bus which careened off a bridge into the Seine at Neuilly last night with a loss of five lives and 23 injured.

The American ivory ship Arthur Fairchild, waiting at Le Havre with 10,000 bags of ammonium nitrate, was moved out to the harbor's most remote basin today for fear of a recurrence of the explosion which blew up the nitrate-loaded freighter at Brest Monday, taking 19 lives.

New York Woman Held In Theft of Jewelry

PHILADELPHIA, July 31 (AP)—Mrs. Gloria Horowitz, 21, of New York, waived extradition today and was turned over to the Pelham Manor, N. Y., police in connection with her attempt to sell for $1000 a pair of diamond earrings valued by jewellers at $3500.

Detective Lt. William Greenhalgh told Magistrate James Donnelly that the earrings had been identified as part of the loot taken from the home of Mrs. Raymond T. Wilkin of Bronxville, N. Y., the past year.

Sgt. Frank J. Gillooly, of the Pelham Manor police, said a $500 bracelet Mrs. Horowitz had pawned here for $50 had been stolen from a Pelham Manor home. Mrs. Horowitz has been free under $5000 bail since her arrest.

She was not employed by the company but by a contractor who was working on the Reading tracks.

Trial Witness

Warrant Officer Louis E. Duncan.

Duncan, above, U. S. Marine Corps, is shown as he appeared as a witness at the court-martial of Harold E. Hirschberg at the New York Navy Yard, Brooklyn. Hirschberg is charged with mistreating his fellow prisoners in a Jap camp while a prisoner of war. Duncan told of an incident when the defendant was threatened by a Japanese guard for informing on Nipponese soldiers in the prison camp.

The women had opened the windows wide before going to bed. When guards broke into the room they found only a small fire which was quickly extinguished. Most of the women were still on their beds.

Police also were investigating the mishap to a Paris bus which careened off a bridge into the Seine at Neuilly last night with a loss of five lives and 23 injured.

E. G. Grace Says Industry Can Meet Steel Demands

NEW YORK, July 31 (AP)—Eugene G. Grace, chairman of Bethlehem Steel corporation, said today the steel industry was prepared to take care of any "normal" demand for steel and that recent steel price hikes should come as "no surprise" in view of mounting labor wage rates.

At the same time, he revealed his company had offered striking ship-building employees a 12-cent an hour pay boost, the same amount for which the union settled recently with other struck yards.

Grace said the steel industry "was doing its job" in furnishing steel and that freight car shortages were "not due to lack of steel, as popularly charged."

POPE LEAVES VATICAN

Man Kills Daughter On Railroad Coach; Dream of Robbers

CARTHAGE, Ill., July 31 (AP)—A 46-year-old woman was shot to death last night in a Burlington railroad passenger train coach and Sheriff Willard Steinberger said her 82-year-old father told him he fired his pistol after he had a dream about train robbers.

Mrs. Elizabeth Grady, of Harvey, Ill., was shot through the chest while accompanying her parents, James J. Stufflebean and his wife, Kathryn, 72, back to their home at Brookfield, Mo., after they had visited Mr. and Mrs. Grady. Stufflebean was carrying about $500 cash in his pocket, Steinberger said.

Mrs. Grady was seated behind her parents in the coach, which was speeding between Plymouth and Augusta, in Hancock county, with the lights dimmed about 11:35 p. m.

The sheriff said the passengers heard a shot, then saw Mrs. Grady stagger down the aisle and fall. Steinberger said Stufflebean, removed from the train at Augusta, was questioned for several hours. He said Stufflebean appeared dazed but finally told him this story:

"I was asleep. I dreamed about train robbers. I woke up, and I thought I saw someone trying to rob me. I pulled out my gun and shot at them."

Steinberger said a .32 caliber pistol was found at Stufflebean's feet.

The sheriff said he held Stufflebean in the Hancock county jail overnight and was keeping him in custody, without charge, pending a coroner's inquest.

Lancaster's 'Blue Baby' Loses Battle for Life

LANCASTER, Pa., July 31 (AP)—Robert E. Wilson, Jr., 16-week-old "blue baby," lost his fight for life tonight in St. Joseph's hospital here.

The infant, who had been an object of state-wide interest since he was first rushed to the hospital July 17 by city police, took a sudden turn for the worse at his home last night and was re-admitted to the hospital early this morning.

Attendants said earlier in the day that his condition was "fair," but added that he had "a bit of a temperature." The child, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, Lancaster, had been placed in an incubator and was receiving oxygen.

The baby, who had been ill since birth, was returned only Monday from the Children's hospital, Philadelphia, where he had been under observation for 10 days. Physicians reported the tiny tot was suffering from a heart condition that robbed his lungs of needed oxygen.

Princess Elizabeth To Wed Philip Nov. 20

LONDON, July 31 (AP)—Princess Elizabeth, 21-year-old heiress presumptive to the British throne, and Royal Navy Lieutenant, will be married in Westminster Abbey Nov. 20, Buckingham palace announced tonight.

The place and date of the marriage were announced after the prospective bride's father, King George VI, appeared before the privy council today and, in a 175-year-old ritual, gave his formal consent to the union.

U. N. BODY TOLD TO CHECK WAR IN INDONESIA

Australian Demands Immediate Intervention; Dutch Delegate Disagrees

By LARRY HAUCK
LAKE SUCCESS, July 31 (AP)—Australia today demanded that the Security Council take immediate steps to stop hostilities in Indonesia but the Netherlands quickly countered that the United Nations had no jurisdiction in the fighting there.

After a four-hour session at which debate-weary delegates several times approached a vote on a call for cessation of hostilities, the United States announced that it had offered "its good offices to both parties." The Netherlands and the Indonesian republic.

The fast-moving developments came shortly after Greece hurried direct charges of aggression against Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria as a follow-up to Russia's veto of the Balkan solution offered by the United States.

With the two complaints of aggression on the table before them, delegates finally adjourned until tomorrow without any decisions and without any discussion on the Greek charges.

The cases were the first two direct complaints of aggression in U. N. history. Both were submitted under providing for possible use of international force.

Pushing for action in the turbulent Balkans, U. S. Deputy Delegate Herschel V. Johnson sought a commitment from Council President Oscar Lange that at least a portion of two meetings tomorrow would be given over to the Greek case.

Lange said only that both items would be on the agenda and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko commented wryly: "Let's wait until tomorrow to worry what we will discuss tomorrow."

Dr. Eelco N. Van Kleffens, new Dutch ambassador to Washington, stepped into the debate just when it appeared that the council might shatter all records for speed and ballot on the Australian resolution calling on The Netherlands and Indonesia to cease fighting immediately. Van Kleffens flew from Washington after presenting his credentials to President Truman.

Dutch Capture Malang; Aim Division of Foe

BATAVIA, Java, July 31 (AP)—The scorched, dead city of Malang, seat of the Indonesian republic's parliament, fell to the Dutch today, The Netherlands army announced, and other Dutch columns raced toward the blazing town of Tjilatjap, chief republican port on the South Java coast.

A high Dutch official said Dutch columns spearing southward across West Central Java from Tegal were within 20 miles of Tjilatjap, the last important republican held port in Java. A republican communiqué acknowledged tonight that Dutch columns were "advancing" on two fronts south from Tegal.

This official said there was an "80 percent chance" that other Dutch troops already had, or by tomorrow would have, landed on the South coast near Tjilatjap to seize the port and prevent further destruction. Capture of this port would cut the Indonesian republic in two virtually at its center.

Semi-official Dutch dispatches from the resort city of Malang, considered the key to East Central Java, said: "The town is a wilderness. Important buildings, factories, convents, cinemas were blown up days ago. Shops have been pillaged and the city is dead."

America's average annual production of Idaho White Pine is approximately five hundred million feet board measure.

Mr. Biddle in the Middle in Family Quarrel

One of the socially-prominent Philadelphia Biddles, young Ernest Biddle (top) had the best intentions when he attempted to intervene as peacemaker between Honora McLennan (right) and her husband, John, when the two began quarreling during a party in New York. It ended at a police station after Honora and her husband joined forces to throw socks at Ernest. The three were forced to pool their resources to pay $5 fines that were imposed on each of them.

Senator Taft Assails Truman; Wants Foreign Policy Revised

COLUMBUS, O., July 31 (AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) declared tonight President Truman "is still dominated by the principles of the CIO" and the only way to get co-operation on domestic problems and redeem what he called a "befuddled foreign policy" is to elect a Republican president in 1948.

He asserted he is "not happy about the country's foreign policy"; that the Administration's Germany policy "has wrecked the economy of Europe and now we are called upon for cash from our taxpayers to remedy the breakdown."

Taft, endorsed earlier in the day by the Ohio Republican State committee, and the State's GOP delegation in Congress for his party's presidential nomination next year, criticized the President in both the foreign and domestic field and indicated this would be his line of attack when he takes the stump in September.

The senior senator at an afternoon news conference thanked his fellow "Republicans" for their endorsement and said he would make a definite decision whether to run Oct. 3 when he returns from his Western speaking trip. Ali signs indicate he will make the race.

At tonight's rally, attended by 1-300 Republicans from Ohio and nearby states, Taft praised the record of the Republican-controlled Congress session just finished. He struck vigorously at what he called its Communist and new deal critics.

As for the Marshall plan, he said his party is interested in reasonable loans to foreign countries "to go to work and help themselves, but I believe those loans hereafter should be confined to actual goods, machinery and equipment necessary to enable the countries which receive them to restore their own productive ability."

"Certainly," he added, "we must move very cautiously and be sure that additional loans really furnish incentive to the foreign peoples involved to work harder to support themselves, and are not too burdensome in our own taxpayers."

Appropriations Bills Signed by President; Flood Control Listed

WASHINGTON, July 31 (AP)—President Truman today signed appropriation bills totalling $608,819,012, vetoed a bill for commemorative Wisconsin half dollar, received the new Dutch ambassador and otherwise kept busy.

He passed up a news conference and arranged instead to meet newsmen and photographers in an off-the-record talk at the White House tomorrow at 11:30 a. m. (Pottstown time).

One of the appropriations bill carries $302,123,912 for non-military functions of the Army, chiefly flood control and navigation improvement work by the Army Engineers. It is $117,803,188 less than Mr. Truman originally asked.

The second bill, appropriating $106,695,100 in supplemental funds for various agencies, is largely for the post office department. It is $135,590,360 less than the President asked.

An $11,000,000 fund for checking the loyalty of Government employees is provided for in the supplemental measure.

The obstacle is the same one that has slowed negotiations all this year: The CIO wants an immediate joint program of action on the economic and political fronts.

The AFL insists that an outright merger must come first. Two weeks ago Green invited CIO leaders to a meeting to follow up the conference of May 1 and 2, in which both organizations agreed that "organic unity should be established," disagreed on the method of doing this, and promised to have future meetings.

But Green told Murray the AFL executive council had decided that a common program of action would be "impossible" without first ending "division within the ranks of labor."

CIO Blasts Hopes For Union Merger

WASHINGTON, July 31 (AP)—Hopes for an early merger of the CIO and AFL took a heavy and perhaps fatal wallop tonight when CIO President Philip Murray rejected a proposal by AFL President William Green for another meeting.

The obstacle is the same one that has slowed negotiations all this year: The CIO wants an immediate joint program of action on the economic and political fronts.

The AFL insists that an outright merger must come first. Two weeks ago Green invited CIO leaders to a meeting to follow up the conference of May 1 and 2, in which both organizations agreed that "organic unity should be established," disagreed on the method of doing this, and promised to have future meetings.

Truck Strike Ends In Pittsburgh Area; Lasted 60 Days

PITTSBURGH, July 31 (AP)—The 60 day-old truck strike which had added 2500 truck drivers—members of the AFL Teamsters Local 249—ended tonight.

President Frank Salvatore of the Western Pennsylvania Motor Carriers association, announced at 11 p. m. that members of his association had voted overwhelmingly to ratify terms of a contract agreed upon earlier in the day by the union.

"Eighty-six of our 109 members were at the meeting. The vote to ratify was 75 for an 11 against," Salvatore told the Associated Press. "The strike is over and already some of our trucks are rolling."

Earlier in the day the teamsters had voted 47-13 to accept a compromise wage hike of 17½ cents an hour. Previously the union had held out for 20 cents and the carriers insisted on a maximum of 15 cents.

Even as the carriers were meeting some trucks were back on the road. As the ratification was announced, most of the firms began calling out maintenance crews to put nearly 1500 pieces of equipment in shape to help unload the logjam of thousands of tons of merchandise which is piled up at terminals.

Under the new contract, Salvatore said that a pre-war clause that requires carriers to put local drivers into cars of out-of-town trucks entering the city was partially reinstated. This clause had been ordered stricken from the contract during the war by the National Labor Relations board.

The vote of the teamsters came after a hours-long meeting, interrupted frequently by shouts from the floor.

Primary state highways in the United States were 92 percent surfaced in 1945 while 39 percent of county and local roads were surfaced.

Arkansas Woman Fails in Bank Holdup; Arrested by Police

PORT SMITH, Ark., July 31 (AP)—A slim young woman in a pink and white sports dress was charged today with attempting to hold up a bank in the heart of the business district in this western Arkansas city of 50,000.

Federal charges of attempted robbery of a national bank, were filed against the woman who gave her name as June Ashby, 21, Eureka Springs, Ark., and Sheriff Prentice Maddux said the slight brunette admitted poking a gun through the cage of bank teller George Miller and demanding his money.

The sheriff gave this account of events:

"The woman entered the City National bank about 1:15 p. m. and went to Miller's cage."

"This is a holdup," she said. Miller thought she was joking and paid no attention to her threats. Then she produced a gun and declared:

"This is a stickup. I mean it. Hand me your money."

Miller said he pushed the gun aside and dropped to the floor behind the counter, calling to another teller to do likewise.

The woman left the bank unobserved.

An hour later the sheriff's office received a telephone call from a woman who identified herself as Verona Tinney, Ponca City, Okla.

She asked Deputy Sheriff F. M. (Buddy) Cardwell about a bank robbery, told him where she was and he kept her talking while three officers rushed there. They spotted her walking nearby, about five blocks from the bank.

"She grabbed for her purse when she saw them coming," Maddux said, "but they thought the gun was in there and jerked it away from her. Then she didn't offer any resistance."

Three New Teachers Are Elected for Spring City Schools

The election of three new instructors by Spring City school board was announced yesterday, leaving two vacancies to fill before the opening of the new term.

The new faculty members, all of whom have accepted their posts are:

Robert L. Johnson, Lancaster, mathematics, to succeed William Epprecht; Mrs. Madeline L. Malnes, recent graduate of Kutztown State Teachers college, a new teacher for English, mathematics and science, to succeed the late Mrs. J. W. Schmidt; Miss Albertina M. Schmidt, Lancaster, additional grade school teacher, to be in charge of the sixth grade.

Vacancies are in the commercial department, caused by the resignation of Harold Moyer, and the school nurse, to replace Mrs. Lorena Pellette, also resigned.

Johnson, the new mathematics teacher, graduated from Bloomsburg State Teachers College in 1942 and entered the Army Air Force. He was discharged in 1945, after serving in the India-Burma section.

He taught under Harry A. Gerlach, supervising principal of Spring City schools, while Gerlach was head of the East Lancaster town school, Lancaster county. While there he was baseball coach and manager of sports.

feet in height, would shut off the light.

Knopf denied there would be loitering and he rejected a suggestion by the lawyer that he place his barber shop 40 feet back from the building line.

Dunks said a barber shop might destroy privacy. In the Summer, he said, women walk around in shorts and they might be embarrassed by patrons of the barber shop staring at them.

Williams was questioned about the Needle Eye club which he said has a State charter of 15 years standing. He said the club now occupies a part of his home and conditions are crowded. He said the club has filed an application for a beer or liquor license.

He said the club proposes to erect a concrete block building, 24 by 70 feet, with a first floor and basement.

Williams denied gambling is allowed in the club and he said minors are promptly chased away.

He introduced Edward Murray, of Reading, as the sergeant-at-arms of the club. Murray said, "I am the man who helps to keep the place in order."

Williams was instructed to present to the board the club's charter and a list of the officers for record of the board. He promised to do so.

Hiram Burdian spoke in favor of the Boaltan plumbing shop. There was no opposition.

Members of the board of adjustment are Chairman Jay H. Rinehart, George Peacock and Irvin W. Riegner, Borough Manager. Dow I. Sears is secretary. Others present included Horace Y. Seidel, head of the zoning commission; Building Inspector Arthur S. Kepner and Councilman Elmer Pegley.

Of the 630 million acres of forest land in the United States, about 462 million acres are classified as commercial timber.

Engine Trouble Develops On Truman's Plane

BALBOA, Canal Zone, July 31 (AP)—President Truman's personal plane, The Independence, carrying Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder and Brazilian Ambassador Carlos Martins, arrived here from Lima today with one of its four engines not functioning.

Army headquarters said the left outboard engine became "troubled" after the plane's take-off from Lima and was cutoff while the plane was airborne. Its departure for Washington depends on whether repairs can be made here.

MacArthur Candidacy For Presidency Viewed

WASHINGTON, July 31 (AP)—Gen. of the Army Douglas A. MacArthur was mentioned on Capitol Hill today as a possible Republican candidate for the nomination for the presidency.

Rep. Van Zandt, Republican of Pennsylvania, three times national commander-in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, told a reporter he is confident from information given him that MacArthur will be back in the U. S. before next June's Republican convention and that "whether he desires it or not, Gen. MacArthur will be injected into the presidential picture."

will be taken. He believed the plan would meet the company's approval since the railroad already has expressed concern over the congestion caused at the intersection when the gates are lowered.

The master switch in the fire house and the new type gates both received Sears' endorsement.

"Control of the traffic immediately in front of the fire house will give the company a chance to clear its apparatus rapidly in an emergency," he pointed out.

Concerning the gates, Sears explained that they have been installed in some communities throughout the country and in Philadelphia and have a good safety record.

"Should a car be caught by the lowering of the gates," he remarked, "it would be possible for the driver to continue right across the grade, with the double gates now in use, it is impossible to do so."

istered and tagged, at a cost of 25 cents; would require certain standards of mechanical condition for the vehicles and the equipping of the bikes with a front light and a rear reflector, and would impose punishment for infraction of traffic regulations and involvement in accidents.

The toughest subject was the suggested imposition of fines for violation. Angstadt said that both he and Laughhead agreed there should be no monetary fine, but that the imposing of a boy's bicycle would be sufficient punishment to deter him from future carelessness.

Another suggestion that the Optimists will offer will be for the striking of medals, to be given to boys who operate their bikes one year without an accident.

After the first year, Angstadt said, the excess money taken in from bicycle tags, could be used for a picnic, in order to show youngsters that "the entire plan is not a money-making scheme, but a system that would work solely for them."

It had been suggested earlier that a juvenile court should be set up, with boys authorized to hear cases of bicycle regulation violation and set the punishment for the culprits.

"We could work the election through the Senior High school in conjunction with Boys' Week in April," Angstadt declared. "This year, if there is an ordinance in operation, we could hold a special election for a boys' court."

Dispute Over Mailbox Brings Firemen, Police

PHILADELPHIA, July 31 (AP)—A telephone call followed by a fire alarm today sent three police cars, four engine companies and a ladder truck to an Eighth street house.

Cause of it all, said Detective James Wilson, was an argument over a mailbox between a landlord and tenant in which the tenant bit the landlord's ear. A large crowd was attracted.

Vacationing

With Mercury Readers

By THE VACATION EDITOR of The Mercury Staff

Haven't decided where to go on vacation yet?

Well, if this column hasn't given you an idea, then pull out a trip tease—travel folder, that is—and select a resort. The resorts will probably be pretty crowded this month, but there's always room for one more.

The important thing is, of course, to get where you're going and return home all in one piece. That calls for careful driving, especially the single folks. It's dangerous to drive with one hand; many a man has run into a church that way.

The majority of Americans "know how" to drive a car, but the police records show otherwise. Happy motoring often leads to "happy hunting grounds."

"We are spending part of our vacation in Allenstown with our aunt, Mrs. Emma Malsberger, and part of it at Hawley and Lake Wallenpaupack," said Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bickel, 97 West Fifth street. Captioned, "The only dears we met at Wallenpaupack" is this card showing a family of four-legged ones.

Nancy Rae Diehm, of Spring City, sent this card from North East, Md., which shows a quartet of vacationers.

Mountain Deer near Hawley

Returning home from their tour through Michigan and Canada, are Mr. and Mrs. Stolpe, of 3 Rice.

Alma College Grounds, St. Thomas, Ontario

Red Point Beach, North East, Md.

A lusty "hello" to their local friends was sent by Len Drumbeller, 425 Beech street and Wils Weidner, of Hillside village, who are enjoying their vacation with good swimming, boating and fishing at Hawley, near Lake Wallenpaupack. Their card is a sunset scene over the lake at Nemanie Lodge, Paupack.

Robert A. Schaeffer, 19 Boone court, said, "Eight of us from the Century Bleacher house, Penn Village, are having a nice time fishing and boating." Schaeffer's view is captioned "Feeding Time" at Pickering Inn, Porter's Lake, Pike county.

"Pennsylvania certainly is tops—you can't beat this place for scenery. We're enjoying ourselves," said Mr. and Mrs. George Garner, Manheim, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Evans.

$5595 Contributed In YMCA Campaign

Both the goals for the number of contributors and the amount of contributions have been exceeded in the 1947 finance campaign of the Boyertown YMCA Movement, according to an announcement made yesterday by Henry R. Garichner, executive secretary of the local YMCA.

Four hundred and ninety-seven individuals, firms and organizations have contributed $5595. The goals were 450 contributors and $5000 in cash for maintenance of the local program and to provide $1000 in 1947 toward the three-year total objective of $1500 for the YMCA World Youth fund.

Four hundred and seventeen of the contributors are from Boyertown and the remainder from Gilbertsville, Bechtelsville, Bally, New Berlinville, Barto, Eshbach, Yellow House, Pennsburg, Englestown, and Gablesville, and surrounding rural areas. Boyertown contributors gave $4819, while the remaining amount came from surrounding communities.

Included in the totals is $107.50 contributed by four of the local YMCA youth clubs to the World Youth fund and credited to the local movement's quota. Because of the response this year, there remains a balance of only $405 to be raised on the three-year quota of the local movement for the fund.

Norman Gotwals, treasurer, said that books of the movement will be open until the end of the year to receive additional contributions to be used for further the work of the YMCA here.

For the second straight night, a pitcher in the YMCA Industrial softball league missed a no-hit, no-run game by a hair. Last night it was Maria Assunta's Nick Lengyel who barely missed the Pottstown Hall of Fame as he limited the cellar-dwelling West End nine to one hit as his team rolled to its 12th victory of the year.

Maria Assunta, trying for the league championship in its first year of competition, moved one full game ahead of Spicer's Cafe with a 11-0 victory over the West End team who dropped back into the American division cellar following El Chico's 10-5 win over Robinson Clay.

Lengyel was rolling along nicely until the fourth inning when with two out, Don Weaver blasted a double down the left field foul line for West End's lone safety. Lengyel then took over where he left off and held his opponents hitless and scoreless the rest of the way.

The winners opened with a single run in the second frame and clinched the game for Lengyel with a five run third frame and another five run outburst in the fourth.

El Chico took its fourth win of the year when it rallied for seven runs in the fifth frame to turn back Robinson Clay, 10-5, on Boden Field. Don Paolucci and Pete Kuspis led the attack with three hits apiece.

Norco Hands Kimberton Foe A 5-0 Setback

Behind the four hit pitching of Dave Staverosky, the Norco Aces turned back the league-leading Kimberton nine by a 5-0 score last night in a French Creek Valley league game played at Kimberton. Kimberton has only dropped two games this year in league competition and both of them have been at the hands of the Aces.

Staverosky worked beautifully all the way and didn't allow a hit until the sixth inning when he allowed two hits, gave up two more in the seventh, but held on to his shutout.

The Aces pounded two Kimberton hurlers for 11 base hits, including doubles by Staverosky and Dick Stravely.

Walcott Picked to Face Louis in Non-Title Bout

NEW YORK, July 31 (AP)—Jersey Joe Walcott, of Camden, N. J., will climb into the Madison Square Garden ring Nov. 14 to face Joe Louis without having, in theory at least, a chance of lifting the heavyweight champion's title.

The match, announced today by Sol Strauss, acting director of the 20th Century Sporting Club, is billed as a 10-round, non-title fight, and inasmuch as a bout must be booked for 15 rounds to be considered as a championship fight in New York, Walcott would seem to be fighting only for any prestige he might attain. That, and what is known as money.

However, the general idea around Jacobs' Beach is that, should Jersey Joe win by a knockout he would be regarded generally as champion, and even should he win a clean-cut decision he would have at least an unofficial claim to the title.

The National Boxing association also recognizes only 15-round bouts for the championship, except in possible member states where 15-round bouts are not permitted. Prexy Abe Greene said that should Walcott win by a knockout, no commission could deny his title claim.

Although, according to the New York rule, it is a non-title fight, the fact Louis would, in the public mind at least, be considered an ex-champion were he to be knocked out makes it theoretically his 24th title defense.

The bout is the first of two 10-round so-called non-title affairs planned for Louis the coming winter. The other, against an opponent yet to be chosen, is scheduled for next March.

JOHNNY CALCINORE WILL RETURN TO READING FOR BOUT

Johnny (Battlin') Calcinore, Kenilworth, light-heavyweight fighter who flattened Freddie Lester in the first round Monday night at Reading, will be back in Reading for another fight in about three weeks with an opponent yet to be named.

Calcinore doesn't know yet when the fight will be and who he will fight, but the big battler expects it to be a well known light-heavy from Philadelphia.

Calcinore can't get over how his training has helped him in his last few fights. He gives all the credit to Joe Palline, his trainer, and Eddie Cypress, his manager.

Johnny says he was working out in a gym at Philadelphia one day when the two men were watching him. They approached him and offered to take charge of him. That was about a year ago.

Since then, Palline has taught him how to be a slugger instead of a boxer and Johnny thinks the results are now paying off. Palline seems to be so sure of Johnny that he recently stated that he thinks Calcinore can knock out Philadelphia's Tommy Ruth, well known light-heavy in Pennsylvania.

LEAGUE LEADERS FALL Trinity Hands St. James 3d Defeat by 7-6 Score

Coming through with three runs in the bottom of the seventh inning with one out, Trinity Reformed edged league-leading St. James in a close Sunday School league last night on Swinehart field, 7-6. The victory moved Trinity to within a half game of the leaders.

Sonny Detweiler started on the mound for Trinity but Jack Kuriz was doing the twirling when the end came. Ronnie Reynier went the distance on the hill for St. James.

St. James got to Detweiler in the first inning for a single run and added two more in the top of the second to make it 3-0. A three run outburst in the top of the fourth put the league leaders out in front, 6-0, but Trinity pushed across a pair of runs in the bottom half of the same inning bringing the count to 6-2. Two more runs in the Trinity half of the fifth frame cut the lead to two runs setting the stage for the three run winning rally in the seventh. With the bases full in the bottom of the seventh, Harry Bartou doubled between left and center sending the tying runs across the plate. Reynier walked, Charlie Kuszog to get to Bob Kuriz and Kuriz delivered with a single driving in the deciding marker.

Each team collected 11 hits with Johnny Esinger touching Detweiler and Kuriz for three safeties in four tries and Bob Kuriz duplicating off Reynier.

TWO HOME RUNS DEFEAT BOSTON IN 5-4 CONTEST
Boudreau and Gordon Account for All Runs With Circuit Drives

BOSTON, July 31 (AP)—Homers by Manager Lou Boudreau and Joe Gordon scored all Cleveland's runs today as the Indians swept a three-game stand by edging the Red Sox, 5 to 4, before a light 5,879 crowd at Fenway park.

Both drives landed barely fair in the left field screen. Boudreau's in the first with Dale Mitchell on base after a single, and Gordon's in the sixth with Eddie Robinson and Hank Edwards ahead of him after a single and a walk.

For right-hander Bob Lemen it was his first start of the season for the Indians and he was credited with the victory although he left the game in the sixth, when the Sox collected three runs.

Bernhart's Bid for No-Hit Game Spoiled by Two Infield Singles

Bruce Bernhart, one of the best athletes ever produced at Boyertown High school, pitched as good a ball game as fans would ever want to watch last night on Franklin Field as he limited the Co-Vets to two hits — both of the infield variety — while his teammates were checking in with a 5-0 victory.

Some 600 fans made themselves comfortable and watched USA 2177's tall, slender right-hander completely baffle the Co-Vets with his assortment of pitches for seven innings.

Bernhart started the game by striking out the first five men to face him and got rid of the sixth batter when he dribbled a weak grounder back to the mound. He fanned the next two batters and then slowed down.

After watching 11 men go down in order under Bernhart, Bill Barber bounced a grounder in back of second base and just barely beat Earl Reed's throw to first for an infield single.

Bernhart, however, caught Barber trying to take third base after stealing second to keep his record of retiring 15 batters in five innings. He went on to get three batters in the fifth and then fanned the first two men to face him in the sixth. The third man to come to bat was Len Ricketts, and he hit a high rounder to the first base side of the mound. Bernhart tried to get it but the ball just hit his glove and rolled off out of Reed's reach for another infield hit.

That was the only man left on base by the Co-Vets during the entire game. It didn't do Ricketts any good, however, for Whitehurst bounced out on the next play.

Bernhart's pitching was masterful and the fans came through with their familiar "boos" again last night as they watched the Boyertown High product register 11 strike outs. He only faced 22 men during the seven innings he twirled.

Ricketts was touched for nine safeties and was in trouble almost every inning. USA got to him for a run in the second inning and three hits, including doubles by Harold and Bus Shaner, produced two more runs in the third.

In the bottom of the sixth, USA added two more runs on a walk, three errors and a passed ball. The winners had a base runner in every inning but some good fielding on the part of the Co-Vets saved plenty of runs.

Washington clustered three runs off Fred Sanford in the sixth inning. Buddy Lewis singled and scored when Sherry Robertson blasted a triple to center. Stan Spence's fly to right scored Robertson and Al Evans' single produced another run after Mickey Vernon and Mark Christman had walked.

Successful doubles by Vernon and Stephens and Walt Judisch gave St. Louis its only run in the seventh, but Washington scored again in the eighth off Gen. Moulder on singles by Vernon and Jerry Priddy, plus Christman's fly to left.

Pee Wee Reese Decides Contest By Driving Winning Run Across In 9th; Cards' Threat Fails

ST. LOUIS, July 31 (AP)—Brooklyn waltzed out of town today with a 13-game winning streak in a 19-game National League lead and a clean sweep of its important series with the defending champion St. Louis Cardinals by a 2-1 victory in the finale.

Pee Wee Reese, whose tenth-inning single had nullified the Cards' dramatic uphill surge last night, came through with a ninth-inning triple today scoring Bruce Edwards who had singled. The winning smash banged the fair side of the right field foul line.

The triumph, span by Little Vic Lombardi, only recently restored to grace as a regular starter, gave the Brooks their second longest win string in history. The club record of 15 was established by Uncle Wilbert Robinson's Robins of 1924.

Just as in last night's game when the Cards came back to force the issue at the last second, the champs rallied in the last of the ninth after Reese's blow had broken a 1-1 tie.

Montgomery, Williams Undergo Physicals

PHILADELPHIA, July 31 (AP)—Bob Montgomery and Ike Williams carried their four-year old feud into the office of the Pennsylvania Athletic commission today where they were pronounced physically fit for their 15-round lightweight title fight Monday.

Montgomery, recognized as the 135-pound king in New York and Pennsylvania, took the play away from Williams, National Boxing Association ruler, with his kidding but may a word did the two exchange.

Police Find No Clues To Man's Disappearance

Disappearance since last Sunday of Leo Clemmer, 42, Douglassville bus operator continued yesterday to be a mystery. State Police of the West Reading station reported.

Clemmer had planned to attend a sportsmen's picnic at Hopewell Park Sunday and he left home in his 1941 sedan. Clemmer is operator of the Pottstown-Birdsboro bus line. Buses have continued in operation.

State police have sent out a teletype message concerning Clemmer's disappearance, but it was said yesterday it had brought no results.

Illinois Pastor Refuses Church Salary; Takes Part-Time Job as Rail Worker

LANARK, Ill., July 31 (AP)—The 27-year-old pastor of the Christian church in this town of 1500 has advised his congregation he will henceforth refuse his church salary and support himself as a railroad section hand for the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific railroad.

He told his congregation he would continue to serve the church without salary.

"This calls for a drastic step," Bro. declared. "The only thing I can think of is to set an example, and as long as necessary, I shall give right back to the church my salary and parsonage rent, supporting myself by other means."

He stated that "only about 30" of the church's 100 members attend services regularly, and said a survey of the church committee showed a "steady decline in revenue."

His church salary including parsonage rent, was $200 monthly. His railroad job pays 85 cents an hour for a 48-hour week.

Bro. married and the father of a 2 1/2 month old daughter, is a graduate of the Harvard University Divinity school and is working part time toward his master's degree in divinity at the University of Chicago.

He is the son of A. C. Bro., president of Frances Sumner college, Mount Carroll, Ill.

Australian Calls for Action

Australian delegate Col. W. R. Hodgson (left) files formal complaint with Dr. Oscar Lange of Poland, president of the United Nations Council, requesting at New York a special meeting of the council to act on the fighting in Indonesia. A similar complaint was also filed by India. Lange ordered an immediate hearing on the Indonesian question putting the case on the Council's provisional agenda.

Army Air Forces Cites Low Supply Of Gas and Oil

WASHINGTON, July 31 (AP)—The Army Air Forces disclosed today that it has only about 90 days supply of aviation gasoline and oil. The reason for the shortage was attributed by AAF officers to heavy commercial demands.

This came out when AAF representatives were asked about reported severe shortages at air bases throughout the country and how the AAF, under the circumstances, will be able to stage its elaborate celebration tomorrow in honor of the AAF's 40th anniversary.

It was explained that for some time the Air Forces has been curtailing its operations to conserve fuel and its mission in observance of Air Force day, while spectacular, is routine in nature.

The AAF said it has had bids on the markets for aviation gasoline since Jan. 1 and had so few offers it has taken them all.

An AAF representative said AAF supplies of 100 octane gasoline now are about 32 percent of normal and 91 and 96 octane gas used by small aircraft about the same percentage. Jet fuel, a special mixture, also is short.

The Air Forces said its training program and its research and development program are being retarded due to the shortage. Cross-country flying for training has been eliminated.

When a plane does land at a base it is given only enough gasoline to get back home "and that isn't safe," remarked one pilot.

The increase in commercial flying and the export of gasoline were seen by AAF as among the reasons why more gasoline has not been sold to the Government. AAF officials said they feel that a percentage of supply should be reserved for the military forces.

Woman Loses Life As Truck Overturns

YORK, July 31 (AP)—Miss Sarah Swartz, 65, was killed today when an empty truck in which she was riding skidded on a wet highway and overturned. State Police said D. H. Newcomer, of Manchester, RD 1, was operator of the truck, which landed in a cornfield.

Coroner Lester J. Sell said Miss Swartz was employed by Newcomer as housekeeper.
